ABOUT GRETA

Coach Greta played at a semi-professional level in the Italian Serie B league, where she received several national recognitions. In 2022, she chose to move to the United States to continue her academic and athletic career, becoming a former NCAA Division II athlete. Her approach combines 20 years of on-court experience with a deep understanding of technique, strategy, and athlete mindset, offering a unique and modern perspective on coaching.

ABOUT LUCIANO

Coach Luciano Bucci is a former athlete at Park University, where he played as a setter, standing out at the national level and becoming one of the program's all-time assist leaders. He received numerous honors, including All-American and Setter of the Year in the Heart of America Conference. After his playing career, he transitioned into coaching, working with Park University's programs and later with the Kansas City Roos, where he currently serves as Assistant Coach and Technical Coordinator.

ABOUT US

At Rome City Institute, we develop athletes on and off the court. Our experienced coaches combine technical expertise, strategy, and team dynamics to help players reach their full potential. In today's volleyball landscape, Italy is the best place to grow as a player, and our program gives athletes the unique opportunity to train, compete, and live the sport in its most inspiring environment.
